Enjoy your life here in the community of Hamburg Crossing, just South of charming downtown Weaverville and 15 minutes from downtown Asheville. Life can be easier here where the owners' association is responsible for exterior maintenance, upkeep of streets and lawn care. This home has been lovingly and fastidiously maintained and sits at the edge of a green space. The open, flowing, floorplan of approximately 1900 square feet provides a spacious, comfortable feel plus pockets of privacy. Well sized windows give pleasant illumination plus nice views of the surroundings. This property is the large Canterbury model featuring an office, flex-space further providing utility in the well-designed space. The community has a large club house with gym plus a pool. Enjoy your privacy or participate in the numerous interest groups and activities operating through the social committee and clubhouse. Numbers of walkers daily use the sidewalk circling the development.
